NOCOCG:

- The annual NOCOG dinner will be held September 28th. All reservations need to be turned in by September 24th.
- Larry Petrie is having a presentation August 29, 2017 at the Schuyler Town Hall.

OLD BUSINESS BOARD:

- Dump Day was a success. It was almost $11,000.
- Supervisor Entwistle stated he held a meeting in July with Town employees and retirees and there were mixed feelings. No decisions will be made until budget time, as the 2018 quotes will be reflected.
- Shared services were discussed. Supervisor Entwistle went to two meetings. A lot of concerns were IT, codes and Justice consolidation.
- The BAR Reappointment will be tabled until next month's meeting.
- Many people came to Shred Day. This may be something the Town can do again next year.

NEW BUSINESS BOARD:

- Budget Requests have been handed out and Supervisor Entwistle will begin going over them. He suggested anyone from the community that has a budget request should ask now instead of waiting for budget time. They have some money set aside for updating the hydrants.
- Direct Deposit was discussed. Councilman Rockhill suggested this be under shared services.

OLD BUSINESS PUBLIC:

NEW BUSINESS PUBLIC:

- Brian Albert from the Gallery came with some concerns on how parcels are taxed and concerns with Beach A on White Lake. Discussion took place. Supervisor Entwistle said he would get with the County and look into the matter. He will let Mr. Albert know what he finds out at the next board meeting.
